Texas Author Spotlight

Native Texan, Suzanne Carreker, Ph.D., CALT-QI, serves as Lexia Learning's Principal Educational Content Lead. Her illustrious career includes 28 years at the Texas-based Neuhaus Education Center, a nonprofit organization offering professional development in evidence-based reading methods to more than 60,000 teachers. Dr. Carreker served as Senior Vice President of Innovative Solutions at Neuhaus and recently completed 10 years of service on the board of The International Dyslexia Association (IDA), where she led the development of a teacher certification exam. In 2009, Dr. Carreker was the recipient of the HBIDA Nancy LaFevers Community Service Award for her contributions to students with dyslexia and other related learning differences in the Texas community. Dr. Carreker received both her M.S. and Ph.D in Curriculum and Instruction from Texas A&M University. Currently, Dr. Carreker is co-editing the fourth edition of Multisensory Teaching of Basic Language Skills. She is also contributing a chapter in Fundamentals of Literacy Instruction and Assessment.

EDUCATION

M.S. Curriculum and Instruction, Texas A&M University

Ph.D. Curriculum and Instruction, Texas A&M University

CALT-QI, Certified Academic Language Therapist, Qualified Instructor, Academic Language Therapy Association

LexiaTexas.com

800.435.3942