Voices of Educators

“ I love that I can click on a student and see exactly how well they are doing with a specific skill and if they are completing things quickly or slowly, as well as their accuracy. I also love that I can track their usage as well as the predictors.”

“ myLexia helps me create targeted and effective lessons for small groups by providing detailed, real-time data on each student's progress and skill development. The platform analyzes students' performance in Lexia programs, identifying specific areas of strength and areas that need additional support. This allows me to group students strategically and design lessons that address their individual learning needs.”

1. Results for educators who logged into the myLexia platform between 7/29/25 and 5/31/26. Data compiled and analyzed by Lexia® Research.

2. Based on resources marked as delivered by educators within myLexia. Some resources are not able to be marked as delivered at this time and some delivery may not be recorded using this feature.
