

Reasons to Choose for Missouri

- Adaptive, individualized literacy instruction providing equity for all students
- Aligned to Missouri ELA Common Core State Standards with real-time data
- Built on an adaptive blended learning model for flexible classroom implementation
- Generates growth on Missouri state assessments
- Includes culturally relevant texts, authors, and content
- Promotes social-emotional learning through a growth mindset approach
- Aligned to WIDA English Language Development Standards
- Explicit and systematic instruction aligned with the science of reading
- Embedded native language support in Spanish
- Strong oral language development
- Enhanced with Assessment Without Testing® technology
- Increases academic language and vocabulary
- Uses research-based approaches to instruction
- Offers authentic writing experiences that cover all three modes: narrative, informative/explanatory, and argumentative
- Continuously updated

Lexia
Missouri

All for Literacy